

FUNNY TALES FOR YOUNGER READERS

MICHAEL ROSEN ILLUSTRATED BY TONY ROSS

Hilarious stories that can be read independently from each other.

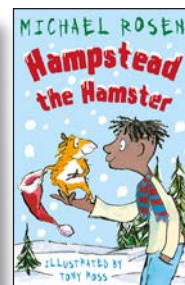

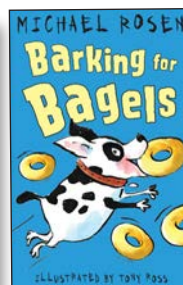

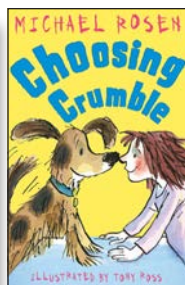

The latest in this collection presents Rigatoni, the pasta cat. He loves pasta, any kind of pasta: spaghetti, penne, fusilli, with pesto, in soup, in lasagne, any whichever way his owners, Ruth and Tina, will serve it. Then one day Ruth and Tina go away and leave George in charge. And the pasta is replaced with yucky cat food. Can Rigatoni find someone who understands what he really wants to eat?

- 8 hilarious stories written by best-selling author Michael Rosen with laugh-out-loud illustrations by Tony Ross.
- Encourages empathy with animals by showing animals as real characters.
- Michael Rosen won the 2026 Hans Christian Andersen Award for Writing. He is a former Children's Laureate and has won the Eleanor Farjeon Award for services to children's literature.

WILL SHAKESPEARE MYSTERIES SERIES KAZ PENNEY

ILLUSTRATED BY SAMMY ELGIE

Loki meets Horrible Histories in Stratford-upon-Avon, starring history's favourite genius, a young Will Shakespeare.

Will Shakespeare knows he's destined to be a genius at something, and he thinks that thing is becoming the greatest person-who-solves-crimes in the world.

Trouble is, he's part of a boring family living in possibly the most boring town in England. But, when the famous (for Stratford-upon-Avon) Moundsofgoo Treasure* goes missing, he might finally have a crime to solve. (*the treasure is an old bag of Henry VIII's stinky toenails that everyone believes hold healing powers.)

If he can find the Treasure, Ronaldo Moundsofgoo will be able to marry Judy Catapult. If he can't, the wedding won't take place. Can Will (and best friend Tybalt, but mostly Will) battle sulky squires, wily wool-cleaners and unscrupulous alchemists to reclaim the Treasure and prove that Will is definitely more brilliant than his annoyingly sporty and well-behaved younger brother? Oh, and give Judy and Ronaldo their happy ending, too?

- An exciting, new four-book series.
- Covers feature bright, neon Pantone inks.
- Combines the humour and first person narrative of diary style books such as Hercules: Diary of a Sort of Hero and Loki.
- Full of fun, friendship, sticky situations, and unforgettable characters.
- 'A fast-paced, fun, and fantastically illustrated trip to Shakespeare's England' Sinéad O'Hart

A HUGH DUNNIT MYSTERY SERIES GUY BASS ILLUSTRATED BY LEE COSGROVE

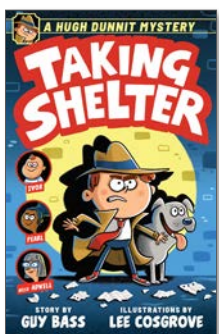

A hilarious detective mystery with graphic novel interludes.

Hugh Dunit may only be a schoolboy, but that doesn't stop him tackling the toughest cases. Like the case of Slim Chickenz. When Hugh's little brother's beloved toy chicken disappears on a train, Hugh is launched into a first-class mystery. Everyone seems to have a loco-motive. Can Hugh stay on track long enough to crack the case? Or will the investigation go completely off the rails?

- Six brilliantly funny detective stories following a slightly deluded schoolboy.
- Packed with illustrations and comic-book-style interludes throughout.
- The animated feature film of Stitch Head by Guy Bass was released in 2025.
- 'This hilarious hardboiled crime caper is ideal for 7+ readers who like shorter, highly illustrated fiction' Guardian, Best Books of the Season

THE TIME-TRAVELLING CAT SERIES JULIA JARMAN

In his quest to find a stray cat who has befriended him, a boy is led on a journey through space and time, finding exotic people and places as well as danger.

In their first adventure, The Time-Travelling Cat and the Egyptian Goddess, Topher and his Dad are trying to come to terms with the death of Topher's Mum when they rescue a stray cat. The cat looks strangely similar to an ornamental cat given to Topher by his late mother, an Egyptologist. Topher names the cat 'Ka', meaning double.

Ka often disappears for days, leaving Topher worried about her. When she jumps onto Topher's computer keyboard, spelling out 'Bubastis', the boy recognises the term and realises that Ka is sending him a message. He learns that Ka is the statuette, who is time travelling back to ancient Egypt when cats were worshipped and sacrificed... Can Topher save Ka before it's too late?

- Julia Jarman's life sales exceed 120,000 copies.

SPANGLES MCNASTY SERIES STEVE WEBB

ILLUSTRATED BY CHRIS MOULD

A slapstick series perfect for fans of Mr Gum, Tom Gates and Barry Loser.

This comical, wacky series follows the antics of Spangles McNasty and his assistant Sausage-face Pete in a seaside town. This pair of half-witted cartoon villains are as greedy as they are silly. Spangles likes nothing more than to steal spangly things: shiny, sparkly, glittery things. Together with his dim associate Pete (who wears a fake beard attached to his hat with elastic) they are always making plans to get rich quick.

Fortunately, our hero, young Freddie Taylor, is there to save the day in each of these ludicrous adventures. Madcap chases, eccentric characters and even haunted custard all feature in this delightfully crazy series.
